‘Zatorska’s dual narrative – first as a native, with a child’s perspective, then as a mature adult & somewhat outsider - makes for an almost dreamlike quality where memory & time collide and distort - at once evocative, enlightening and compelling.’ Food Tripper

THE AUTHORS

The Australian/Polish husband/wife team caused a sensation with their first book introducing Poland, its culture & cuisine to English readers round the world. It sold 20,000 copies in 12 months & won Gourmand, ABIA & Foreword awards. BEATA grew up in a remote village in Poland’s Karkonosze Mountains and now works as a family doctor in Sydney, Australia. Her husband SIMON is a well known photographer & film maker.
